Learn to Teach Patient Safety

…By understanding the principles of human factors engineering

When?

January 23-24, 2008 • Western U.S.
May 19-21*, 2008 • Eastern U.S.

 One and a half days - faculty development workshop and one and a half days - patient safety conference.*

Patient Safety Curriculum (GME) Workshop
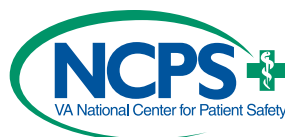

Faculty Development for Teaching Residents

- Improve patient safety culture and RCA participation in your VAMC
- Help meet ACGME core competencies
- Make system change possible through grounding patient safety in human factors engineering

Who Should Attend?

- Physician-Teachers
- Patient Safety Managers
- All others interested in learning how to teach patient safety.

Save the Date! Save a Seat!

Email PSCurric@va.gov

NCPS+
VA National Center for Patient Safety

For general information, please visit…
http://www.patientsafety.gov/curriculum/
(no tuition or fees, ACCME /ANCC accredited, locations TBD)